Dear Ellen -

I wrote to you yesterday and presume you will receive it with this. I saw Uncle James last evening he arrived safe home - I have nothing new for you - I cannot say positively whether I shall leave for Gotha ~~tomorrow~~ evening & will of I can but you may expect me on ~~Thursday~~ day ~~day~~ I am in hopes to hear from you tomorrow - my love to all friends all over here - Oh! how I do long to see you I am quite tired already of being alone - I shall be with you as soon as I possibly can.

Yours dear and affectionately
Henry
